BOCINI COLLECTION

BOCINI 2009 Collection

BOCINI is a leading manufacturer and importer of corporate, work and safety wear, casual and promotional clothing and sports wear for the Australian market.

Established and servicing the Australian market for more than 19 years, we passionately pursue high quality fabrics and design. This excellence has ensured that BOCINI has become recognised as a unique brand in Australian work wear and promotional clothing.

Our professional garment design team works tirelessly each season to develop new products and styling that ensures we are able to supply high quality garments that exceed our customers' expectations.

2009 Collection

In our new catalogue you will find new styles, colour offerings and new product ranges. We offer core classic corporate and promotional garments as well as work and safety wear that our customers expect as well as exciting new garments that will appeal to both new and existing customers.

We have expanded our product categories to include new styles:

Performance Wear

also known as compression clothing for athletic activities to give the wearer a competitive edge.

Team Essentials

that allow coordinate for sporting and other group or corporate activities across various styles for both adults and kids.

Stitch Feature Essentials

which include new polo* and basics with a new fashion cover stitch panel line feature.

Our catalogue features all of our ongoing stock items. If you need any style changed or embellished to meet your customer requirements or if you need a complete new product, we can provide indent services by working closely with you to develop high quality price competitive customized styles. Please contact our friendly and professional Customer Service or Sales Team for enquiry.

We remain committed to providing the best quality and price value product for both you and your customers.

We thank you for your ongoing support!

CUSTOMIZING SERVICE

BOCINI offer indent services that enable customers to develop garments to their exact specification. We own and operate our own overseas factories. Our Indent Service is highly valued by our customers. We offer:

Great Service

BOCINI has a large range of fabrics and colours and provides printing and embroidery services. In addition, special fabrics and new colours can be made by request to meet your clients' special needs.

Faster Lead Times

Approval samples that are developed from our stock colours and fabrics are completed within 2 weeks and bulk production is delivered to customers from 6 weeks after sample approval.

Lower Prices

All garments are manufactured in our own overseas factories providing you with the most competitive prices possible, including printing and embroidery services which save time and money for you and your clients.

High Quality Standard

With years experience in garment manufacturing, our factories have developed and deployed a critical QA system to ensure we supply the best possible garments for our clients.

Flexibility

By producing garments in our own factories we are also able to manufacture urgent and small orders. Small order quantity starts from 100 units per item.

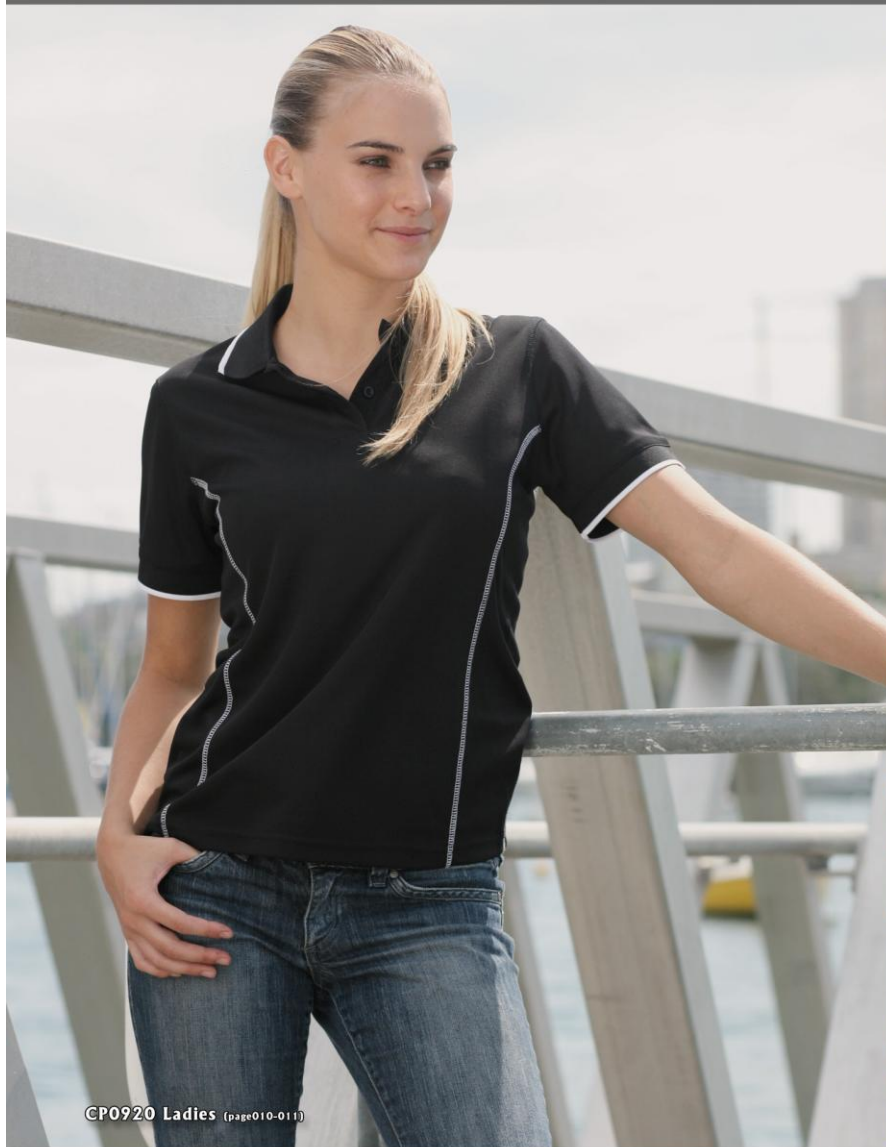

Experience

BOCINI is an expert corporate clothing and workwear supplier with more than 19 years experience in manufacturing garments for Australian business. Our professional team will look after your indent order from the time order being placed and ensure garments are made properly and delivered on time.

We have highly developed in house Order Tracking and QA Procedures that ensure that all orders meet your customer expectations.

Orders will be thoroughly checked by our professional team member and your requirements will be clarified at this first stage. We will also thoroughly check all detail so as to anticipate any problems or limitations and offer solutions before production begins. In addition, all aspects of the order are thoroughly communicated to ensure that all customer expectations are met.
